

I love the do not call list and I feel I have the right to decide who calls me! After all phone service is something I buy every month! It's not free! So I should be able to decide not telemarketers!